

FREE!!

University of Kansas Center of Latin American & Caribbean Studies and The Spencer Museum of Art present
Educator Workshop on the Caribbean

Spend time with fellow educators learning about the history, culture, language, literature, and cinema of the Caribbean!

View new Haitian artwork at the Spencer!

Learn about ideas and resources to incorporate Caribbean studies into your classroom curriculum!

Co-Sponsored by the Kansas African Studies Center at KU

Saturday, January 26th, 2013

9:00 am—1:00 pm

Spencer Museum of Art,

1301 Mississippi Street, Lawrence, KS

Free Parking in Lot 91 (North of Museum)

For more information or to register, please contact Danika Swanson, Outreach Coordinator with the Center of Latin American & Caribbean Studies:

lasoutreach@ku.edu or 785.864.3899.

~30 person limit~

